

American Majority would like to cordially invite you to the
DO NOT MISS
Municipal Candidate Training Seminar of 2008!

- When: Friday, November 14th, 2008
- Where: In Tulsa at the Embassy Suites at 3332 South 79th East Ave (Just west of Memorial and south of E 31st St South and I-44)
- Time: Registration begins at 8:30 a.m. with the seminar ending at 5:15 p.m.*
*A continental breakfast and catered lunch will be provided at no cost
- Price: COMPLETELY FREE FOR ALL PARTICIPANTS!
- Who: For city council and school board candidates, campaign volunteers, and grassroots activists
- Sponsor: American Majority is a non-partisan, candidate training organization focused on teaching candidates and their staffs on how to develop a victorious operational plan, fund a successful campaign, organize a dedicated grassroots following, and engage their supporters and potential voters through in-depth communications training.
- Details: The event is a day-long seminar with both 1-on-1 media training and lectures covering topics such as:

“How to Communicate Effectively”

“Your Campaign Plan to Win: Planning for the Time, People and Money to Win”

“Dollars and Sense: Fundraising for What You Need, Not What You Can Get”

“New Media Engagement: The New Ways to Talk to Voters and Engage Supporters”

“Grassroots Action: How Ordinary People can get Extraordinary Results When They Work Together”

Upon completion of the Seminar, the candidates will receive continuing education materials, communications curriculum, and suggestions to help them utilize think-tank resources.

Candidates are encouraged to bring at least 2 campaign volunteers or activists!

To RSVP or for more information, please contact Seth Brown at 405-639-8896 or seth@americanmajority.org